Coal Leasing: By a ye-and-nay vote of 344 yeas to 51 nays with 1 voting "present", the House passed H.R. 6721, to amend the Federal Leasing Act of 1920.

By a ye-and-nay vote of 80 yeas to 319 nays with 1 voting "present", rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

Agreed to:

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended;

A technical amendment;

An amendment that allows the States of Utah and Colorado to use funds received from Department of the Interior oil shale test leases to reduce the social and economic impact of mineral lease development;

An amendment that reduces from 15 to 10 years the limit on holding coal leases which are no longer producing commercially significant amounts of coal;

An amendment that adds language to protect certain national recreation areas from any future coal mining (agreed to by a recorded vote of 370 ayes to 32 noes with 2 voting "present"); and

An amendment that requires notification of the Governor of a State in which strip mining is proposed to be conducted on national forest lands so that he may notify the Secretary of the Interior of his reasons for opposing such a proposal (agreed to by a division vote of 39 ayes to 25 noes).

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to make all information acquired by the Secretary accessible under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act with the exception of certain proprietary information obtained from a company or an individual;

An amendment that sought to prohibit strip mining on any leased tracts of land until strip mining legislation has been enacted by Congress;

An amendment that sought to reduce the number of public hearings required on a proposed coal lease from 4 to 2, with one hearing to be held on the proposed land use plan and one on the lease itself (rejected by a division vote of 14 ayes to 17 noes. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled);

An amendment that sought to strike the 25,000-acre limitation on logical mining units (rejected by a recorded vote of 97 ayes to 301 noes with 1 voting "present");

An amendment that sought to reduce the minimum royalty from 12.5 to 5 percent;

Natural Gas Emergency Act: House continued consideration of H.R. 9464, to assure the availability of adequate supplies of natural gas during the period ending June 30, 1976, but came to no resolution thereon. Further proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue tomorrow. Pending when the Committee of the Whole rose were the following:

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute;

A substitute amendment to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute (Krueger substitute) that seeks to permit the interstate purchase of unregulated gas for up to 180 days, to immediately deregulate new onshore gas at the wellhead, and to completely deregulate new offshore gas by January 1, 1981;

An amendment to the Krueger substitute that seeks to prohibit the Federal Power Commission from regulating the sale of new natural gas to a natural gas company for resale in interstate commerce; and

A substitute amendment to the Krueger substitute that seeks to deregulate prices only for gas produced by companies producing less than 100 billion cubic feet per year. (A point of order against this substitute was overruled.)

House took the following action in the Committee of the Whole on the Krueger substitute:

Agreed to:

An amendment that continues the FPC's present authority to lower the price of old gas if it deems proposed new rates to be unreasonable (agreed to by a recorded vote of 232 ayes to 184 noes);

A conforming amendment; and

An amendment that strikes the section prohibiting the use of natural gas as a boiler fuel. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to redefine "new natural gas" to be gas produced from a well the drilling of which began on or after January 1, 1976;

An amendment that sought to make it the purpose of the bill to minimize the detrimental effects of a natural gas shortage on the public interest (rejected by a division vote of 26 ayes to 74 noes);

An amendment that sought to authorize the FPC to establish and modify national ceilings for rates and charges for the sale or transfer of offshore gas produced after January 1, 1976 (rejected by a recorded vote of 182 ayes to 236 noes); and

A preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken.

Previously, by a ye-and-nay vote of 306 yeas to 99 nays, ordered the previous question on the measure. Objection was heard to a request to vacate the proceedings whereby the House ordered the previous question.

Pages 5165-5169

International Security Assistance: By a yea-and-nay vote of 240 yeas to 169 nays, the House passed H.R. 11963, International Security Assistance Act of 1976.

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on International Relations.

Agreed to:

An amendment that strikes language that would have provided that prior to supplying security assistance to a nation, consideration would be given to organizations with consultative status to the United Nations in determining whether such nations violate human rights (agreed to by a division vote of 30 yeas to 26 noes);

An amendment that adds a new section that requests the President to evaluate the emergency food needs of Portugal and to take proper action to alleviate any such emergency;

Two amendments en bloc that direct the President to report to Congress recommendations as to whether security assistance should be continued if foreign officials are found to have received illegal assistance, or have attempted to extort money from corporations of the United States;

An amendment that directs the Secretary of State to report to Congress on the progress of human and civil rights of U.S. citizens detained in Mexico; and

An amendment that clarifies that no new sales may be made to Turkey under the Foreign Military Sales Act after fiscal year 1976 unless the President determines that Turkey is in compliance with provisions of that act.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to strike the section establishing grant international military education and training;

An amendment that sought to delete the authorization of $70 million for military assistance to Jordan;

An amendment that sought to reduce the authorization of military assistance to the Philippines by $13 million (rejected by a division vote of 16 yeas to 46 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike the authorization of $19.4 million in military assistance for Indonesia (rejected by a division vote of 24 yeas to 46 noes);

An amendment that sought to eliminate $750 million in security supporting assistance for Egypt and increase assistance to Israel to $1 billion;

An amendment that sought to prohibit any military or security supporting assistance to Chile (rejected by a recorded vote of 139 yeas to 266 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike the section providing for trade with Vietnam (rejected by a recorded vote of 185 yeas to 223 noes);

An amendment that sought to prohibit any funds to be used for the purpose of planning or carrying out any assassination or to finance any foreign political activity;

An amendment to the previous amendment that sought only to prohibit the use of funds to finance any assassination;

An amendment that sought to strike the section relating the sense of the Congress regarding control of military forces in the Indian Ocean (rejected by a division vote of 24 yeas to 103 noes).

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to add a new section to authorize $1 million to the safeguard program of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

An amendment was offered but subsequently withdrawn that sought to allow funds to be authorized for the purpose of assassination and financing of foreign political activity. Previously, a point of order was overruled against the amendment.

Subsequently, S. 2662, a similar Senate-passed bill was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill.

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers and punctuation in the engrossment of the Senate bill.

H. Res. 1068, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote.

Land and Water Conservation Fund: By a ye-and-nay vote of 392 yeas to 3 nays, the House passed H.R. 12234, to amend the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965, as amended, and to amend the Act of October 15, 1966, to establish a program for the preservation of additional historic properties throughout the Nation, as amended.

By a ye-and-nay vote of 248 yeas to 147 nays, on a demand for a separate vote in the House, agreed to an amendment that prohibits the use of Federal funds to enclose or shelter facilities used for outdoor recreation activities. Previously, this amendment was agreed to in the Committee of the Whole by a division vote of 36 yeas to 24 noes.

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed To:

An amendment that prohibits the use of Federal funds to enclose or shelter facilities used for outdoor recreation activities (agreed to by a division vote of 36 yeas to 24 noes); and

An amendment that removes the prohibitions against differential admission fees at recreational areas.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to reduce the authorization level for the Fund to $500 million in 1979, and $600 million for 1978 and thereafter (rejected by a recorded vote of 111 yeas to 282 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike language providing for a new 20-75-5 State distribution formula when appropriations available to the States from the Fund exceed $240 million;

An amendment that sought to lower the threshold for the implementation of the 20-75-5 ratio from $240 to $180 million (rejected by a recorded vote of 177 yeas to 221 noes);

An amendment that sought to allow the Secretary of the Interior to waive the 50-50 Federal-State matching grant formula with a 70-30 ratio for areas with heavy outdoor recreational needs; as amended by an amendment that would require the Secretary to consider the State's ability to fund projects before waiving the 50-50 ratio; and

An amendment that sought to require States to identify those areas having the highest unmet needs, and the Secretary to consider those needs in allocating annual appropriations.

An amendment was offered but subsequently withdrawn that sought to add a new section providing free entry to handicapped and reduced entry to elderly persons at recreational areas designated by the Secretary.

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 327, a similar Senate-passed bill was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill.

Housing: By a recorded vote of 332 yeas to 27 noes, the House passed H.R. 12945, to amend and extend laws relating to housing and community development.

Agreed To:

The first thirteen committee amendments;

An amendment that removes set-asides of $60 million for public housing modernization, $140 million for acquisition or construction of conventional public housing, and $575 million in operating subsidies for existing public housing projects (agreed to by a recorded vote of 260 yeas to 110 noes);

An amendment that strikes the 1-year authorization of administrative expenses for HUD and authorizes in lieu such sums as are necessary for fiscal years 1977 through 1981;

An amendment that requires that the housing for the elderly program be put on-budget beginning in fiscal year 1978;

An amendment that phases out Farmers Home Administration mortgage assistance in areas which no longer qualify as rural areas;

A technical amendment to change the effective date of the section providing assistance payments;

An amendment that exempts Social Security cost-of-living increases in computing the rent paid by senior citizens in public housing (agreed to by a recorded vote of 260 yeas to 99 noes with 1 voting "present");

A committee amendment inserting sections on FHA co-insurance programs, and multi-family mortgage limits;

An amendment that authorizes $5 million each in fiscal years 1977 and 1978 for the National Institute of Building Sciences;

An amendment that provides for a mortgage insurance program to provide housing for military and civilian employees assigned to duty at military installations; and

An amendment that requires the Secretary of HUD to undertake studies to determine the need for pre-purchase, default, and delinquency counseling for purchasers under the National Housing Act.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to provide for separate processing of applications for elderly housing assistance;

An amendment that sought to prevent the prohibition of section 8 rental assistance only because the public housing is in an area without public water and sewage systems;

An amendment that sought to strike the section providing supplementary community development block grants;

An amendment that sought to include supplemental security income within the scope of the cost-of-living exemption for rent payments in public housing (rejected by a division vote of 17 yeas to 34 noes);

A committee amendment that sought to insert a new section to create a Home Owners Mortgage Loan Corporation, as amended by an amendment that would include receipts and disbursements of the Corporation within the budget (rejected by a recorded vote of 116 yeas to 243 noes);

An amendment that sought to add a new section to increase from $100 to $300 million the funds authorized for the Rehabilitation Loan Program (rejected by a division vote of 25 yeas to 70 noes); and

An amendment that sought to require the Secretary of HUD to conduct a study assessing the housing needs of individuals and families who reside in metropolitan centers.

An amendment was offered but subsequently withdrawn that sought to strike the section that makes the flood insurance exemption program permanent.

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 3295, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill.

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers and cross-references in the engrossment of the bill.
